

Parole Board Hearings (COVID-19)

- All face-to-face Parole Board hearings have been suspended.
- The board will progress cases through remote hearings and a new intensive paper review process, sometimes combined with case management hearings.
- People in prison should contact their legal teams for more information about individual cases.